

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Nature's Places book.

Forest

A forest is a large area of land covered with _____.
Birds, _____, and other animals live in forests. People cut down forest trees to get _____ to burn as fuel or make such things as paper. Many people also enjoy the beauty of forests. The big picture shows a forest-covered area in Canada's _____.

_____ trees cover much of the Yukon.

A _____ keeps a lookout for food from high in a tree's branches.

_____ hunt large hooved animals of the forest.

It's a fact!
Since 1950, over half of the world's trees have disappeared.

Some scientists work to protect forests. They check to make sure forests stay healthy.

A _____ roams the forest plane. It eats wood plants of the forest.

_____ is a wildflower that springs up quickly after a forest fire.

_____ travel in herds. They eat mostly grass.