

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Nature's Places book.

Tiny worlds

Many tiny worlds are right under our ____! The forest floor is home to insects, ____, and other small animals. How many living things you can spot in the big picture? ____.

Many animals hunt for food in the ____.

____ provide food for small insects and other animals.

____ live in dark, damp places.

____ use their muscular food to crawl about.

Many small animals eat matter from the ____.

____ break up the soil. This helps plants to grow.