

To help you complete this worksheet, use the Terrific Trees book.

Trees with needles

Some trees have small, narrow pointed leaves that look like _____. These trees are known as _____ trees. They include firs, _____, redwoods, and spruces. Many needleleaf trees grow in _____ areas. They keep their needles all year around, even during _____.

Most needleleaf trees are _____. Evergreen trees stay green all year long, even in the snowy winter.

The seeds of most needleleaf trees are held in a tree's _____.

Needleleaf trees do not grow flowers or fruit. Many of these trees have seeds in woody cones. The seeds are spread by the _____.

Nearly all pine trees have _____ that grow in bundles.

